

NVQ level 6 – Construction Contracting Operations Management

This course is designed for training future managers who will be responsible for managing the work activities of their teams onsite.

The Training Programme which underpins and supports the NVQ level 6 qualification is fundamental to the development of management skills for future career development.

Content

- Resource Management

Contracts, project planning, cashflow and risk, costing and dispute resolution

- Leadership and Management
Negotiating, communication, client interaction, decision making, people management.
- Health & Safety
Assessments and CDM regulations, working practices and responsibilities.
- Planning, Programmes and Logistics
Estimating, surveying, procurement and supply chain compliance
- Sustainability and Environmental
Legislation, documents and procedures related to specialists working activities including carbon footprint and waste disposal regulations.